Basic Beginner Techniques

This class will show you the basic techniques and tools for making bracelets, necklaces and earrings.

Feb 21, Tue ... 6:00-8:00 ... Grace Wikander ..... $20

Supple Dreams

Master odd-count peyote stitch in this stunning bracelet! You will be taught several different ways to do the odd row turnaround so you can find the one that you like best. This eye-catcher feels silky smooth on your wrist!

Feb 22, Wed ... 6:00-8:00 ... Caroline Kennedy ..... $20

A Trip to the Races

In this class you will learn dimensional peyote stitch and you'll want to make more and more bracelets because it's so fun playing with color and arrangements. I was inspired by a bracelet from Diane Fitzgerald's book, Shaped Beadwork. It's not quite the same as hers, as I like to change things up.

Feb 23, Thu ... 6:00-8:30 ... Allison Harper ..... $25

Instant Bling Bracelet

Gorgeous and sparkly! Best of all – it's easy to make! A lovely way to learn basic right angle weave. A perfect class for beginners.

Feb 25, Sat ... 10:00-12:00 ... Bonnie Mountain $25

Lively Links Bracelet – A Tutorial

Using interconnected ruffled rings of color, this simple but eye-catching design by Marina Nadke was published in the October, 2009, Bead & Button magazine. As with most patterns, I can't leave well enough alone! I've played around with options such as layering the colors and doubling up. This uses peyote stitch, and is a great beginner class.

Feb 25, Sat ... 1:00-3:30 ... Bonnie Mountain ... $25

Juliet's Lace

Learn how to make a delicate intertwined two- or three-strand bracelet while learning simple right angle weave. The color combinations are endless!

Feb 25, Sat ... 4:00-6:00 ... Alison Wallis ..... $20
